In Fond and Loving Memory [Mary Scott Brinigar]

Many Poems have been written by famous poets on "Mother" the sweetest word in the world, but to do this the writer's heart must be filled and overflowing with love gratitude and joy. Such were the feelings of our friend Hugh Brinigar on reviewing the life of his mother and what she meant to him.

The Heart of a Mother.

"A heart that was careworn and weary,
A heart that was brave and true,
Tender, good and loyal,
Forgiving and Loving too."

"This heart that reflected the sunshine,
And sheltered for each tear and care,
Was called to make the angels happy,
Our Sweetheart who waits for us there."

These lines were composed shortly after the death angel had wafted her to that better land, following a sojourn on earth of almost four score years and ten. As we pen these lines in memory of this aged friend we recall her many virtues that tended to make up an ideal wife and mother, a daughter of pioneer parents Moses and Mary Ann Scott born to them on their farm home near Blytheville Harrison Co. Mo. 12 Mar 1861. It was here she grew to womanhood and on the 1 Jan 1886 united in marriage with William Brinigar and became a member of his parents, Michael & Emily Brinigar's household, taking her place as a real homemaker and helpmate for the young husband, assisting in caring for Father and Mother Brinigar until they were called from life.

This old farm home where she went as a bride, was scene of many joys and sorrows, one of the latter being loss of her first born. Later the coming of two sons, Hugh and Bryan, was a great solace and joy to her. Under the roof of this Ancestral home these sons were reared and taught the fundamentals that tend to give to the world ideal Citizens. Bryan established a home near his parents, while Hugh, the eldest remained in the home, since the death of his father, 14 May 1944, has given his whole undivided companionship to this mother, making it possible for her to remain in the home, where 58 years of her happy wedded life had been spent. What a consolation it was to her as she viewed the Western horizon of life to have his loving care, and be among the scenes of which she had been accustomed. Not everyone is permitted to enjoy this privilege and now that she is gone this devoted son can have no regrets, and how much the following lines, also composed by him soon after her going, imply his resignation.

"In our prayers, dear Mother, we say God Bless you,
As he gives you that tender care,
Where you have gone to be with loved ones,
And tell Daddy we'll be there."

For many years Mary had been a member of the Baptist Church, retaining her membership at Blytheville until the end, ever true to its teachings. Her long, useful life of almost 90 years came to a close on Monday Morning 26 Feb. 1951 releasing her from all suffering and pain.

As many old friends look upon the likeness of William and Mary Brinigar that heads this tribute, let us not think of them as dead, but somewhere in God's realm, living and their lives together just as the same as yesterday.

Services were held at the Boggess funeral Home in Eagle where the Rev. Elmer Evans, a close friend who grew to manhood near Brinigar home, spoke comforting words to the bereaved family and many old time friends, stressing on the memories of bygone days spent in their home. Hymns were sung by Mrs. Hugh Van Horger and Mrs. Roy Schiezelbu with Mrs. Clarence Shain at the organ. She was buried by the

Minnie Jacobs d. of Aaron Graham Scott - Obituary as told by her daughter; Evelyn Jacobs Keller, written in the Family Chain letter 31 July 1964.

I have only sad, sad, news this time. As you all know by this time about Mother passing on 6 July, 1964 - However you may not all know how it happened. She decided to go have her blood pressure checked and get acquainted with a doctor Boise - (Having moved just recently from Twin Falls Idaho) just a case she ever needed him, she said. He lived near them in Boise. She had written me the day before saying "no, I'm not sick, I just want to have a check up." and get acquainted with a doc. Anyway she was in his office for about half hour. He checked her blood pressure, made another test or two and was about to give her a clean bill of health when he looked up at her and she was trying to say something but couldn't speak and he said her mouth was blue, so he said "wait a minute" sit down and let me check your blood pressure again" but she was gone. just that fast. It turned out she had a ruptured Thyroid - and it happened right there. He said it was only the second case he had had in 32 yrs of practice. He called some specialists to find out if he might have saved her. at least she got her wish, to never be in a hospital or be a burden to anyone - for this we are thankful - however she seemed so well when we were all over there for decoration day. It was hardest for Hazel and Alvin to have lived close to her for 17 yrs.

With the help of Bob - Hazels son and his wife and Eva flew immediately from San Francisco, it was a very nice funeral. She is buried at Cloverdale Memorial Park between Boise and Meridian Idaho. She had told Bessie Scott sometime ago she did not want to be buried in California.

By Myrtle Richardson -

The writer was called to Coinsville Monday by the death of a North Harrison Co, Pioneer Carrie Scott Reeves. She was the widow of the late Porter Reeves, who was also a member of a Pioneer family. He was the son of John and Lucinda Reeves, a prominent family of North Harrison, residing where the town of Bethany Blythedale is now located.

We had known "Mother" Reeves since our early childhood, It seemed but yesterday that Carrie and Porter and their two children Guy and Lora, formed a happy family in that community. However they have resided in and near Coinsville since 1909. When Porter passed away in 1931

An account given by her step-daughter Geraldine Jordan
1617 E. Hendryx Lane - Peoria Ill. - Ann Barnett another S. daughter

Caroline's sudden death was a shock to all of us. However I'm sure her family were grateful she didn't suffer or have to endure a long illness. She too, had just visited her dr. and had left his office with her daughter, Ann Halladay. They walked down one flight of stairs and Caroline said she felt very strange. Ann walked a few feet to the elevator to signal it to stop so they could ride down to the lobby.

When Ann turned back to help Caroline, she collapsed and was brought back to the dr's office immediately and rushed to the hospital, but only lived a few minutes after she collapsed. Her heart just gave out. She was 91 and had surely lived a good life. I have never seen anyone at her age look so beautiful when laid out. Her complexion was clear and unlined, her hair arranged becomingly just as she always wore it. Her hands too, looked so lovely and youthful.

Was Unique.

The wedding of Miss Sallee and Mr Scott.

It was a fashionable affair.

and occurred before a large number of friends, at the Baptist Church Thursday night -

a beautiful and unique church wedding was that of Miss Carrie Mae Sallee and Mr Elzumer Scott, which occurred at the Baptist church Thursday evening.

The wedding took place at 8 o'clock. The church had been decorated for the affair in a decidedly original but appropriate manner. The rostrum was arranged to represent a rustic scene. In the background was a cottage, and from the house through the grass ran a path to an old fashioned well - moss covered, and with the regulation old open bucket. Surrounding the well and house were arranged large palms and ferns giving the appearance of trees. Other decorations throughout the church were of evergreen and smilax. The church was filled with invited guests.

Shortly before 8 o'clock, Mrs. J. M. Dunn sang Robyn's lovely ballad "you". The sentiment of the song accorded well with the occasion, and Mrs Dunn sang it with surpassing sweetness.

The bridal party entered the church at 8 o'clock, Mendelssohn's superb wedding march being played by Miss Linkham and Mrs G. B. Sherman on the violin and organ.

The ushers, James England and Wade Wright, led the way up either aisle, followed by the maid of honor Miss Ethel Sallee and the best man Mr Carl Wolf; the brides maids Miss Effie Hatcher and Miss Louise Pitts, and their attendants Mr. Arthur Sallee and Mr. Charles Scott.

Following the Bridesmaids came two winsome little flower girls, Rita Dunn and Zelma Davis and then came the Bride and groom.

As the wedding march was hushed, Rev. Pitts began the ceremony. "You are come in the roseate morning of life to where two ways meet, to drink of the empyrean fountain of happiness that has flown in the halcyon days of Eden."

At this point little Retia Dunn took from the old Eben bucket a glass of water and handed it to the preacher. He in turn handed it to the bride and groom. A most Pleasant Affair

The Church beautifully decorated - Many invited Guests in attendance -

The ceremonies very impressive - A delightful Reception. The Baptist Church was the scene Thursday night of one of the most pleasant and beautiful weddings that has ever been witnessed in Chillicothe (Mo). The contracting parties were from among our most highly esteemed citizens, and elaborate preparations were made that the event might be a happy one to the bridal couple as well as to friends and relatives.

The young couple are well known in Chillicothe (Mo), the bride being a resident of the city, and a highly accomplished young lady. Miss Carrie Mae Sallee.

The groom is from Chicago, he being the stenographer of the General Superintendent of the Rock Island railroad Mr. Elzumer Scott.

He is a graduate of the Chillicothe Normal, and during his three years in school he made scores of friends who were delighted to do him honor on his wedding day.

The church was beautifully decorated with ferns, flowers evergreens and potted plants. a bank of evergreens and flowers filling the back part of the pulpit, while immediately above the altar was a decorated arch hanging out above the couple with a monogram beautifully wrought forming the letter "S".

Mr Carl Wolf was the best man and Miss Ethel Sallee sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Mr Arthur Sallee, Miss Effie Hatcher, Mr Charles Scott, brother of the groom, and Miss Louise Potts were the other attendants. Misses Zelma Harris and Reta Blunn were the flower maids and were like two little fairies in fairy-land.

James England and Wade Wright acted as ushers. Just prior to the entering of the bridal party, Mrs Blunn sang a beautiful solo in her most happy and entertaining.

Mrs Adelia Sallee aged 57 years beloved wife of Thomas Edward Sallee, died at the family home, 1225 Trenton Street, Wednesday morning at 10:15 o'clock of brain trouble, after an illness of several weeks. The funeral will

Mrs Sallee was universally beloved for her many fine traits of character, a sweetly womanly woman whom no one knew but to love, and whose place in the home and church can not be filled. As a wife and mother Mrs Sallee's character was a shining light, she was devoted to home and proved its garden angel, directing always for good, her loved ones of the home circle. It is here that she will be missed most, and a loving husband and children are left inconsolable.

In church work Mrs Sallee was always ready to do more than her share and her share and her interest never lagged in well doing. The highest testimonials of regard are expressed on every side by the entire membership of the First Baptist Church of which she was so prominently identified.

Sadly, has a good woman passed away, but she leaves behind the memory of a good name that can never die.

The Scott Family Reunion.

On Thursday and Friday of last week there was a reunion of the Aaron Graham Scott family that will be remembered by Graham and the children at least for many years to come.

All the children were present, some not having been home for seven years, and it was the first time they were altogether since fourteen years ago. Six states were represented, as it were, by those who came from a distance. There was Charley from Chicago, Ill. Ota from Lowney, Colorado. Minnie from Chase Nebraska; Geneth from Washington D.C. Edna from Indianapolis, Ind. and Eva from Topeka, Kansas. The balance of the family living here. There are sixteen in all and everyone is enjoying the best of health. It was quite a treat to meet on the old farm again. Other relatives who came from a distance were Mr. Jerome Traupel and his wife and daughter from Van Wert Iowa. and Mrs Rachel Robb, whose home is in Hoyt, Kansas.

Eva was the last of the children to arrive. She was met by the others on Wednesday at Blythedale, from which place they all went to the cemetery to place flowers upon the grave of the dear mother who had left them just fourteen years before.

On the following day they were at the farm home where every preparation had been made for the pleasure and comfort of all. Tents were stretched upon the shady lawn, a large swing, a shooting gallery and games for both young and old. Just before noon the children presented Mr Scott with a large rocking chair with the wish that it might not only be useful to himself but to his wife also who had done so much to make the reunion a happy one. At dinner time the table was filled with everything good, and for the first time in many years all were once more assembled at their father's table. In the evening the boys played the pipe and drums and marched up and down the road just as they used to do so long ago. Every one enjoyed it immensely, especially Broham, who seemed to be the youngest of the bunch. When the music began he stepped upon the porch and did an old time dancing stunt with surprising spryness.

The next day - Friday, relatives and neighbors from far and near gathered in, bringing well filled baskets with them, about 140 were present. In the yard a long table heaped with all manner of good things to eat; great platters of fried chicken, meats, salads, pies, Cakes, fruit etc. As a side issue there was a wagon load load of ripe Melons furnished by Oliver Scott. Ample justice being done to the sumptuous repast, the attention of the crowd was directed to the ball game which took place in the pasture just south of the house. Players were quickly chosen and the game was on. Battery for one side: Roy Scott and Hugh Binigar the other. Less Bandy, Ruthy Jacobs, and Huy Crosby. Umpire Elzumer Scott. Our space will not permit of a detailed description of the marvelous and sensational plays which were made (to say nothing of the rank decisions of the umpire). but Oliver Scott, in a heartrending effort to make a home-run, went down on all fours between third and home, his wind about gone. He made a brave effort to reach the goal on his hands and knees but put out ten feet from the plate. Omer Hutton played all over the field, his main object being to keep out of the way of the ball, and at last the same motive prevailed. Bill Loy completed a famous home run by sliding the last fifteen feet on his head. Score 16 to 5.

After the game a large crowd gathered in the house to join in the singing, and then came martial music. In the midst of the fife and drum music. Uncle Bill Broham could remain silent no longer, and told the boys how he had marched into ^{the} Battle of Gettysburg to the tune of "Smilhton", which they had just played, and while he was now growing older, if another call was made for volunteers and he was to hear the strains of that music he would certainly have to "fall in" and shoulder arms in the defence of his country. There were many other features of entertainment during the day, one of which was an interesting foot-race, between Aunt Rachel Robb, aged 82 and Kenneth Le Roy Scott aged 12. Mrs Robb easily won, and undoubtedly holds the record for one of her age.

The reunion was an event that will long be remembered, not only by the children who were present, but by all. A series of splendid pictures were taken during the two days by L. J. Wright and J. R. Day.

In a few days the children will all have returned to their respective homes, and will carry with them a memory of that home-coming which years cannot efface.

Charlie Scott returned to his home in Chicago Saturday after attending the family reunion at the home of his father Aaron Broham Scott, northeast of Iowa.

Beyond Life's Mystery -

Mrs. A. H. Scott died Sunday Evening at Home near Pleasant Valley - A noble life ended.

died at her home in Marion Township Harrison Co. Missouri, Sunday 22 Aug 1897 at 8:30 p. m.

Mrs. Eliza (Aneliza) Scott wife of Aaron Graham Scott after an illness of fifteen days. The disease was typhoid-malarial fever which, from the commencement defied medical skill and passed by the kindest attention of loved ones and friends, and though she came of a long-lived family and was a rugged heavy woman and had much to live for, yet it was not to be - and now she's done with care and woe

The deceased was born in Knox Co. Ill. 23 Dec 1853 making her age forty-three years and eight months. She came to Missouri with her parents in 1857 and settled two miles southwest of Blythedale. She was united in marriage to Aaron Graham Scott 24 April 1871. In 1870 she publicly professed faith in Christ, and united with the Eaglesville Baptist Church. She and her sister (Mrs Elizabeth Nevill) were among the first persons baptized by the writer into fellowship of that Church. She was the mother of thirteen children (two pairs of twins) eleven of whom are living - their first born and one of the twins having preceded her to the Spirit Land. She and her husband were in the organization of the Pleasant Valley Baptist Church in 1885.

It has been our pleasure to know the deceased and her father's family more than thirty years; also the bereft husband and his family. The immense concourse of neighbors and friends (one of the largest we have ever seen in Harrison Co.) who attended the funeral, together with the loving hands during her protracted illness, attest the warm place she had in the hearts of all who knew her

Her Father Pascal Bandy and wife four sisters and two brothers live to mourn her death. She lived and labored for her loved ones. She tried to make her home a type of Heaven. Her children rise and call her blessed. A more exemplary family we do not know. The two older sons, Elzumer and Charles are in the employment of the C. R. D. and P. railroad trusted and respected. The rest are at home. To the husband and motherless children we extend our deep and heart-felt sympathy.

The funeral services were conducted under the trees surrounding the home. Beautiful and appropriate songs were sung. The Scripture lesson was taken from John, 14 Chapter and Romans, eight Chapter. Left - part of Revelations, twenty first Chapter, twenty-fifth Verse - "For there shall be no night there".

Loving hands lined the grave with snowy white cotton and festooned it with flowers. Flowers covered the rich Casket, and evergreens mottoes cover the mourned in the Neville Cemetery near Blythedale, Texas were on all faces. But she has gone, dead? No; Life, only life, perfect, glorious, immortal life is here.

By faith she discerned the blessed world where there is no night, and with hope and patience waited for the morning that has come. It dawned with unearthly splendor and shone with celestial radiance as she passed through the dark valley. The sun of righteousness, full-orbed and resplendent with doing glory, broke upon her vision. She is now enjoying the light of that sun which never sets, and while our eyes are bedimmed with tears, here are gazing with unperceivable wonder and delight upon the scenes of Angelic life in the Kingdom of God.

Loving hands supplied all that affection could suggest but to no avail, death, the cruel robber, has taken a true and faithful wife, a doting mother from her children and left her aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paschal Bandy, 2 Brothers and four sisters and a host of true and loving friends to mourn - but not as those who have no hope. more than twenty years ago she set her spiritual house in order, knowing that death was before her.

Two lamps are given us three life,
Two lamps to light our way,
Without them we'd be desolate
However bright the day.

One is the Lamp of Memory
Whereby we can regain
The priceless hours we have known
Along life's precious lane.

When we recapture youth once more
And find a special friend,
Or walk alone on childhood's path
As twilight dreams ~~descends~~, descends.

The other is the Lamp of Hope
That shines across the years
And bring us strength to face what comes
If we are drenched with tears.

No sorrow is too difficult,
The grief too hard to bear
As long as hope is in the heart
Within our every prayer.

And so --- we're grateful for these gifts
That glow across each day ---
Two lamps of hope and memory
Two lamps to light our way.

Chicago, 11 October 1899.

Mr. Charles J. Scott, a former Harrison Co. Mo. boy and second son of Aaron Harmon Scott, was married last evening to Miss Annia M. Hughey, formerly of Pittsburg Pa. but for the past two years has resided with her mother in Chicago. The wedding occurred at 8 o'clock in the evening at the home of the Bride, 66 Street and Normal Ave. and was solemnized by the Rev. Duff, of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in the presence of a few near relatives and friends, among whom were A. B. Scott the groom's father Elzumer Scott Jr. and Wife, Mr. and Mrs. Booth, brother and sister of the Bride, and a number of their friends both of Chicago and Pittsburg.

After the young couple had been pronounced man and wife, in most fitting words by the pastor, and had received the congratulations and best wishes of all present, and while the guests were admiring the many presents, the writer (Presumably by mistake) walked into the Culinary department of the household, and was there met by a sight one like to remember. In the spacious kitchen were two large tables loaded with good things to eat, and in the dining-room was a long table most beautifully decorated with cut flowers, ferns and fruits, suitably arranged for the occasion. Supper was served in five courses, and everyone did it full justice.

The bride is a most excellent young woman, possessing an air of refinement and a disposition well calculated to make a happy home, and comes from a highly respected and well to do family. Mr. Scott is already well known to many Harrison Co. Mo. people.

They left this evening for a weeks visit with relatives and friends in Harrison Co. Mo. After which they will make their home in Chicago, where Mr. Scott is employed in the General Office of the Rock - Island Railroad Co -

Obituary

Elzumer Scott was born in Madison Jefferson, Co Ind. 7 April 1844 and died at his beautiful home in Bethany Missouri. Monday morning, 3 Oct 1904, aged 60 yr five months and twenty-six days. Death was caused by a heart disease, from which he had been a sufferer for many years, and which, about six months ago, developed into dropsy. The latter had given him no special trouble or suffering, but the condition of his heart baffled the best medical skill, and in spite of all loved ones and kind friends could do, there seemed to be no cure for the dread disease. Realizing fully his condition he had arranged his business affairs as he desired them and was perfectly reconciled to the inevitable, and to the Master's will, death came in an instant, as only a few moments before he was talking to those about him. Present at his bedside were his wife and two sons, Calvin and Roscoe.

Elzumer was one of the patriotic boys who wore the blue, having enlisted early when the Civil war broke out and remaining in the field until the great strife was ended in 1865. He enlisted at Eagleville Mo. 2 Aug 1862, and was a member of the First Brigade, Company D. of the 23 Mo. Infantry. As we heard his old Captain say only a few days ago - "he was a good soldier," ever loyal and true to the Stars and Stripes, and in a number of fierce engagements with the enemy stood side by side with his faithful comrades in the face of shot and shell, enduring the many hardships of that cruel war; and at last went with General Sherman's Army on their long march to the sea. But he has answered to the last roll call, and has gone to join the great Army on the other side of the river.

"Toll the Bell softly, a Loved one is Gone."

Commissioner Wase tells us that the Veterans of the War for the Union are dying at the rate of 100 per day.

Among those who passed to the Best Beyond, Monday 3 Oct 1904 was Bro. Elzumer Scott, who was born in Madison Jefferson Co. Ind. 7 Apr 1844. He came with his parents from Fulton Co. Ill. to Harrison Co. Mo. in 1858, Enlisted in the U.S. service - First Brigade, Company 29, 23rd Missouri Infantry 2 Aug 1862 at Eagleville Mo. being but 18 years old, and served until mustered out, 10 May 1865. He was married to Miss Narcissus Bandy 26 Oct 1865. To this union were born five children four sons and one daughter. Two sons and the daughter preceded him to the better land. Mr.

Scott made the profession of faith in Christ in 1868 and united with the Baptist Church in Eagleville. This is Brief a biographical sketch of Brother Scott. He was a good citizen a good soldier, a consistent Christian, an honest man of exemplary habits, he was beloved and respected, and dying regretted. He leaves a vacuum in society that cannot be filled. His genial spirit and hearty good cheer will be remembered long.

The writer who has known him intimately for 37 years, counted him among his true and tried friends. The Lord by His providence has singularly interwoven our ministerial life with the family of the deceased, having conducted the memorial services of his father (Moses Scott) mother and several others of the near "kin" and for fully ten years or more has been his pastor at Eagleville and Blythedale Churches.

Bro. Scott's health had steadily declined for almost a year, but all that medical science, coupled with loving care and attention could do was in vain, for he has paid the debt that all must pay, and he did so without a murmur - resigned to the will of the Lord.

His remains were brought from his late home at Bethany Mo. to Blythedale Mo. on the 1:30 train Tuesday 4 Oct 1904. and the memorial services — cont Page 2 — to Narcissa Bondy, 26 Oct 1865. In this union five children were born, three of whom proceeded him to the great beyond. Some Thirty-five years ago he publicly Confessed faith in Christ and united with the Baptist Church, a more temperate and Law abiding Citizen could not be found. Earnest and energetic in disposition, he was every ready to speak his sentiments upon the side of right and justice.

A short service was held at the home in Bethany on Tuesday morning 4 Oct 1904, Conducted by Rev. Youngblood of the Baptist Church. After which the remains were taken by train to Blytheville accompanied by the family and relatives. Here they were joined by other relatives and friends who marched from the depot behind the hearse in silent procession to the Baptist Church. The pall-bearers were members of the "23rd" as follows. Captain J. W. Moore, Robert H. Brinsterd, Thomas Beeks, Spencer Stoner, Samuel H. Moore and Adam Sweeten. On arriving at the Church the house was already filled and as the casket was borne down the aisle there arose from the organ soft sweet strains of "nearer my God to thee", while on every side eyes were dimmed with tears, showing how keenly his old home community felt the loss of one whom they had learned to love.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. H. Burrows of Cairoville who had known the deceased intimately for over thirty^{five} years. He read a number of appropriate passages from the Bible, which included the twenty-third Psalm, without giving reference, saying that they were "all contained in the blessed Book." At the conclusion of the services, the remains were taken to the Hill Cemetery and laid to rest in a grave lined with snowy white and feathered with flowers. Now the last funeral rites were performed by the Reuben Hale S. A. R. Post.

The bereaved family have the sympathy of a host of friends in the loss of this faithful companion, a loving father and a worthy citizen. Brother rest in Peace until the Grand review of that great Day, with every victory won, sermon was preached by the writer at the Baptist Church at 2. P. M. the theme being "Victory Over Death."

Oh death where is thy sting? Oh grave where is thy victory? The sting of death is a sin, and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ". 1 Cor. 15: 55 + 57.

Beautiful hymns were feelingly rendered and the church was appropriately decorated. The U. A. R. Post, though few were present, read their impressive burial service--at the Cemetery--and acted as pall bearers. Flowers covered the casket; the grave was tastefully lined and festooned with flowers. In this flowery chamber we laid him to rest, but he is embalmed in our hearts--(I speak for all who knew him intimately).

There was an immense concourse of people present and tears were in many, many eyes ~~were~~ not given to weeping.

May the Lord's blessings and guidance be with and over his dear wife and sons, and all the brothers and sisters--yea, the kindred and friends far and near--and bring us all safely home for Jesus sake, is my Prayer.

Obituary

Letha Winogene Scott, beloved daughter of Mr and Mrs Elzumer Scott was born in Ridgeway Harrison Co. Mo. 25 Mar. 1905 and died at the Noyes Hospital St Joseph Mo. 27 Feb 1918 aged 12 years 11 mo and 2 days. She was only sick ten days, the trouble starting in the middle ear chamber on each side with an ordinary ear ache, and was given medical attention from the first day. The case seemed to be progressing very satisfactory for four or five days when the pain ceased, but a continued high temperature from that time on indicated more serious and deep-seated trouble. It was then decided by the two attending physicians that nothing less than a hospital operation would be effective. Her parents took her to St Joseph on Wednesday afternoon, accompanied by Mr Williams.

It was there learned that the diagnosis of the local physicians was correct, but small hopes were given by the two examining specialists for recovery. The patient died about four hours after the operation without regaining consciousness.

Funeral services were held in the Christian Church at Ridgeway Saturday afternoon, conducted by the pastor C. A. Denial assisted by Bro. F. J. Smith of the M. E. Church. The crowd was so large many were unable to gain admission. A more beautiful or touching service had not been witnessed by our people here for a long time, if ever. The music by the choir, the quartet by the little girls, and the solo "No Night There" by Mrs Charles Burris, was appropriate and well rendered. The white casket was followed into the church by six girls - Winogene's classmates, laden with beautiful flowers of many kinds.

Like we when we go into the flower garden to gather a beautiful bouquet, we gather the buds the half blown blossoms and the perfected flowers. They are all equally beautiful to us. And so it is when the Father comes to this earth, sometimes it is the buds of babyhood, sometimes the half blown blossoms of

Of Childhood and sometimes the perfected man or woman.
From her first baby lessons learned on Mother's knee, and her regular attendance at Sunday School and Church, she understood very early in life the story of Jesus and His wonderful love for children. She was converted and united with the Ridgeway Christian Church in Sept 1914. It was the greatest joy of Winogene's sweet life to make someone happy, and the thought of anyone being hurt or sad touched her tender heart. It must be that God planted this beautiful flower in His Garden of roses, that some special mission of His great plan of salvation might be fulfilled.

After the Church services, the funeral moved to Ridgeway's silent City of the dead, and the remains were gently laid to rest to await resurrection morn.

Her work on earth was quickly done, and has a lasting impression. God's messengers are ever on the wing.
In silence they cross the threshold, and when they go away leave a foot-print named a grave, but His plans are not interrupted, and there are no accidents, no catastrophes unto Him.

Her parents and three brothers are left to suffer the irreparable loss. Why this glowing ray of sunshine, this pure life with its benign influence should be so suddenly taken from the home we cannot understand.

"Not now but in the coming years,
It may be a better land,
We'll read the meaning of our tears,
And there, sometime we'll understand.
We'll know why clouds instead of sun,
were over many a cherished plan.
Why hopes are crushed and castles fall up there, sometime, we'll understand."

A. H. Scott Family Reunion -

The Family of Aaron Broham Scott, living three miles north of Ridgeway Mo., are enjoying a happy reunion this week. Like many other large families, the older children have grown up, married and moved far away to different parts of the country, but through a system of corresponding "Chain Letters" they call it, they have kept in close touch with each other occasionally have been able to meet together with father and mother at the old farm where they can turn themselves loose as in childhood days, and recount some of the happy incidents of their earlier life there. It has been six years since they were all together in a similar reunion.

On Sunday last many relatives of the Scott family, old acquaintances, neighbors and friends, gathered at the farm with baskets full of good things to eat and all enjoyed a genuine old fashioned basket dinner under the shade of the trees, about 150 were present.

Members of the family who come from distances to attend the reunion were - Charles and son Broham, from Chicago - Zenith from Washington D. C. Mrs. Munnie Jacobs and daughter Helen from St Anthony Idaho. Ota Scott and family, who come through in an auto from Iowena Colo. Mrs Edna Smith from Indianapolis, Ind. Mrs. Eva Gubb with daughter and son from Quincy Ill. Mrs Mary Mc Kinnon and son James (^{Creft} ~~Creft~~) from Washington D. C.

Those living near home: Elzumer Scott and Family - O. C. (Credrick) Scott and family of Ridgeway. Mr and Mrs Kenneth L Weary and baby of Cainsville Mo. and Ralph Scott and wife and baby from Blythe Dale Mo. Eleven in all of the older family of children were present, the five children of Mr Scotts second marriage are yet living at home.

Some of the relatives and friends of the family, who come from a distance were: Calvin Scott and wife and two daughters of Mountain Grove, Mo. W. H. Heldmen and Wife from Franklin Nebraska, James Neville and Wife - E. W. Prentiss and Wife and W. H. Shumard and Wife from Bethany. and Ed Birdner and Wife from Coinsville Mo. Space prevents us from enumerating the many other neighbors and friends present who helped make the occasion pleasant.

About the middle of the afternoon someone suggested that we have some outdoor music and singing - and in a few minutes an impromptu chorus of singers was formed while another one rushed down to the church near by for some song books, the piano pulled out on the large porch, and for three quarters of an hour the music produced by that bunch would do credit to any place or occasion, it was simply grand.

Then followed solos, duets, and readings, by Charles Scott Ned Prentiss and Wife and Gene Scott. Anyone who ever heard "Lillie Nevill" and her husband sing and entertain, know just how nicely they can do it.

Altogether it was a day long to be remembered.

On Monday afternoon while the children and grandchildren were all together they presented their father Broham with a nice gold watch and chain, each of the older children expressing hope that their parents might live on the old farm for many years to come so that they could all come back again and again visit the spot which to them seem one of the brightest in the world. The stepmother Alice to the older children has always been so kind to them that the children and grandchildren alike seem always glad to be at the old home -

Chicago, 11 October 1899.

Mr. Charles J. Scott, a former Harrison Co. Mo. boy and second son of Aaron Mahom Scott, was married last evening to Miss Annia M. Hughey, formerly of Pittsburg Pa. but for the past two years has resided with her mother in Chicago. The wedding occurred at 8 o'clock in the evening at the home of the Bride, 66 Street and Normal Ave. and was solemnized by the Rev. Duff of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in the presence of a few near relatives and friends, among whom were A. H. Scott the groom's father Elzemer Scott Jr. and Wife, Mr. and Mrs. Booth, brother and sister of the Bride, and a number of their friends both of Chicago and Pittsburg.

After the young couple had been pronounced man and wife, in most fitting words by the pastor, and had received the congratulations and best wishes of all present, and while the guests were admiring the many presents, the writer (Presumably by mistake) walked into the Culinary department of the household, and was there met by a sight one like to remember. In the spacious kitchen were two large tables loaded with good things to eat, and in the dining-room was a long table most beautifully decorated with cut flowers, ferns and fruits, suitably arranged for the occasion. Supper was served in five courses, and everyone did it full justice.

The bride is a most excellent young woman, possessing an air of refinement and a disposition well calculated to make a happy home, and comes from a highly respected and well to do family. Mr. Scott is already well known to many Harrison Co. Mo. People,

They left this evening for a weeks visit with relatives and friends in Harrison Co. Mo. After which they will make their home in Chicago, where Mr. Scott is employed in the General Office of the Rock - Island Railroad Co -

A Most Pleasant Affair

The Church beautifully decorated - Many invited guests in attendance -

The ceremonies very impressive - A delightful Reception. The Baptist Church was the scene Thursday night of one of the most pleasant and beautiful weddings that has ever been witnessed in Chillicothe (Mo). The contracting parties were from among our most highly esteemed citizens, and elaborate preparations were made that the event might be a happy one to the bridal couple as well as to friends and relatives.

The young couple are well known in Chillicothe (Mo), the bride being a resident of the city, and a highly accomplished young lady, Miss Carrie Mae Sallee.

The groom is from Chicago, he being the stenographer of the General Superintendent of the Rock Island railroad Mr. Elgumer Scott.

He is a graduate of the Chillicothe Normal, and during his three years in school he made scores of friends who were delighted to do him honor on his wedding day.

The church was beautifully decorated with ferns, flowers evergreens and potted plants, a bank of evergreens and flowers filling the back part of the pulpit, while immediately above the altar was a decorated arch hanging out above the couple with a monogram beautifully wrought forming the letter "S".

Mr Carl Wolf was the best man and Miss Ethel Sallee sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Mr Arthur Sallee, Miss Effie Hatcher, Mr Charles Scott, brother of the groom, and Miss Louise Potts were the other attendants. Misses Zelma Davis and Reta Dunn were the flower maids and were like two little fairies in fairy-land.

James England and Wade Wright acted as ushers, just prior to the entering of the bridal party, Mrs Dunn sang a beautiful solo in her most happy and entertaining.

faithful relation of husband and wife, as long as you both shall live? then in the name of God and by the Authority of the state I pronounce you lawfully married: "

After the prayer for the welfare of the young people, the wedding march was resumed, and the bridal party left the church, and were driven to the bride's home on Trenton Street, where a reception

Miss Sallee is the daughter of Mr and Mrs. Thomas Edward Sallee, and is a lovely young lady. She wore a dress of white organdie over blue silk and carried a bouquet of Bride roses.

Miss Ethel Sallee wore a white organdie over Nile green silk and carried roses.

Miss Eppie Holcher's gown was white organdie over violet silk, and her bouquet was of carnations.

Miss Patti work white organdie over pink silk and her bouquet was also of carnations.

The flower girls were daintily gowned in white. They had been trained by Mrs Fulton.

Mr. Scott formerly attended the Normal. He now occupies a good position in the Rock Island office at Chicago.

The bride and groom left Friday for Princeton where his parents will give a reception.

At the altar the attendants arranged themselves on either side of the bride and groom, and the officiating minister Rev. S. V. Pitts, while the flower girls stationed themselves by the old well.

As the wedding march was lushed, Rev. Pitts began the ceremony. "You are come in the roseate morning of life to where two ways meet, to drink of the empyrean fountain of happiness that has flown in the holyon days of Eden."

At this point little Petia Dunn took from the old Eden bucket a glass of water and handed it to the preacher. He in turn handed it to the bride and groom. Each drank of the water, and when it was returned to Rev. Pitts, he, holding a glass high above his head poured part of its contents on the floor, and continued the ceremony with these words:

"For we must needs die and are as water spilt on the ground that cannot be gathered up again; yet doth God devise means that his banished be not expelled from Him." This water is emblematic of our dissolution, suggests with this promise, our immortality and God's supernal blessing.

"Water is a thing of beauty, sustenance and joy; a force in nature most salutary, an emblem of God's unfailling grace. You have seen two crystal drops pending on a vibrating stem, blending into one; the union is dissoluble; so now with your radiant, palpitating lives. This holy union is like that of Christ and His Church; therefore a man shall leave father and mother and cleave cleave to his wife.

And now do each of you promise and vow, before God and these witnesses that you will live together, in the holy bonds of matrimony according to God's Ordinance, clinging to each other in the loving dutiful, manner, and as the tones of the solo died away, the organ played by Mrs. Sherman, and the Violin by Miss Fannie Linkham began the wedding march, and the bridal party proceeded by their attendants, marched to the altar when Rev. Pitts in a short but beautiful service pronounced them man and wife.

To the lovely strains of the recessional the party marched out of the church, but received many congratulations at the door by friends who could not attend the reception.

Immediately after the marriage ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents.

Soon they will leave for Chicago, where they will make their future.

Was Unique

The wedding of Miss Sallee and Mr Scott.

It was a fashionable affair.

And occurred before a large number of friends, at the Baptist Church Thursday night -

a beautiful and unique church wedding was that of Miss Carrie Mae Sallee and Mr Elgumer Scott, which occurred at the Baptist church Thursday evening.

The wedding took place at 8 o'clock. The church had been decorated for the affair in a decidedly original but appropriate manner. The rostrum was arranged to represent a rustic scene. In the background was a cottage, and from the house through the grass ran a path to an old fashioned well - moss covered, and with the regulation old oaken bucket. Surrounding the well and house were arranged large palms and ferns giving the appearance of trees. Other decorations throughout the church were of evergreen and amilap. The church was filled with invited guests.

Shortly before 8 o'clock, Mrs. J. M. Glenn sang Robyn's lovely ballad "you". The sentiment of the song accorded well with the occasion, and Mrs Glenn sang it with surpassing sweetness.

The bridal party entered the church at 8 o'clock, Mendelssohn's superb wedding march being played by Miss Linkham and Mrs G. B. Sherman on the violin and organ.

The ushers, James England and Wade Wright, led the way up either aisle, followed by the maid of honor Miss Ethel Sallee and the best man Mr Carl Wolf; the bridesmaids Miss Effie Hatcher and Miss Louise Pitts, and their attendants Mr. Arthur Sallee and Mr. Charles Scott.

Following the bridesmaids came two winsome little flower girls, Rita Glenn and Zelma Davis and then came the bride and groom.
