(An old blackie's Prayer -)

O' Lo'd gib him de eye ob de eagle, dat he may spy sin a-fur off. O' Lo'd, nail his toung to de gospel-tree; and O' Lo'd, tie his hands to de gospel plow - then, O' Lo'd, bend his knees and bow his head away over in de low ground of sorrow where much prayer is wont to be made. And, O' Lo'd a-riint his head wi' de kerosine ile of salvation and den sot him on fire!"

[A prayer given for a noted slave of the Methodist Church - who was invited to speak at a Negro church.]
